A stylized, high-contrast black and white map of the city of Milan, Italy. The map shows the city's layout, including major roads, the Milan Cathedral (Duomo di Milano) in the upper left, and the city's extension towards the right. The word 'MILAN' is written vertically in large, bold, black capital letters across the center of the map. The background of the map is filled with a dense pattern of small, black, stylized human figures, suggesting a large population. The overall style is graphic and modern.
