

This is a detailed aerial photograph of a coal mine area, heavily annotated with handwritten notes and lines. The image is oriented vertically, with the top of the page showing the mine area and the bottom showing a large body of water. Key features and annotations include:

- Top Section: Shows a cluster of rectangular structures, possibly mine buildings or houses. Handwritten notes include "COAL DIRT" and "CUT WITHIN 50' TO 60' OF RAILWAY".
- Middle Section: Features a large body of water, likely a reservoir or pond. Handwritten notes include "HAYSTRIPPING" and "DEC 1-99".
- Bottom Section: Shows a large area of land, possibly a field or forest, with numerous small rectangular structures scattered throughout. Handwritten notes include "COAL DIRT" and "CUT WITHIN 50' TO 60' OF RAILWAY".
- Annotations: The image is covered in numerous handwritten lines, circles, and text, indicating specific locations and features. Some of the visible text includes "COAL DIRT", "CUT WITHIN 50' TO 60' OF RAILWAY", "HAYSTRIPPING", "DEC 1-99", "COAL DIRT", "CUT WITHIN 50' TO 60' OF RAILWAY", "HAYSTRIPPING", "DEC 1-99", "COAL DIRT", "CUT WITHIN 50' TO 60' OF RAILWAY", "HAYSTRIPPING", "DEC 1-99".